

St John's Court manager Laura Wilkes, with a number of guests at the ceremony for staff which was held recently

Care home workers are recognised for efforts

STAFF at St John's Court Care Home in Bromsgrove got their own moment in the spotlight recently as part of National Carers Week.

The home held an awards ceremony, where stand out staff were presented with certificates and gifts in recognition of the way in which they go above and

By Alex Townley

01384 358061

alex.townley@midlands.

newsquest.co.uk

Twitter @Brom_Advertiser

beyond their roles.

Nominations for the awards came from residents, relatives and other team members at John's, with two trustees from Somerset Redstone Trust presenting the awards, followed by a celebratory afternoon tea.

For more information on John's Court, which is located in St John Street in the town centre, visit the website srtrust.co.uk.